I am a Conservative Christian Southern American. I believe in The U.S. Constitution and the principles of the Bible. I have studied history, especially American history most of my life. I read the Constitution of the United States, try to understand it and live by its principles.

I love my wife and conducted my business to the best of my abilities and honorably.

While we have great new developments, I feel the soul of small towns is in their "old town" areas, with well-kept homes and families who stay and have pride in their neighborhoods. This should be continued.

Council members in Dayton must represent all citizens, but my heart will always live in "Old Town" Dayton.

Thank you.
